Quick review

- ▶ Q. What items must be recycled by law in NJ and what cannot?
- ▶ A. Some items are governed by state, some by county rules
- ▶ NJ mandatory recycling law (NJ Statewide Mandatory Source Separation and Recycling Act), enacted, 1987

Essentially the answer to whether many items can be recycled or not, is..... “ it depends”

IT DEPENDS ON WHICH COUNTY YOU LIVE IN

IT DEPENDS ON WHICH MUNICIPALITY
YOU LIVE IN

IT DEPENDS WHETHER
YOU ARE A BUSINESS OR RESIDENCE

. But It REALLY depends where you live.....Check out here as a starting point

Shredded Paper

- ↯ Shredded paper can easily slip through the recycling machine, so it needs to be recycled very specifically, depending on each county.

Avoid furniture heading to the landfill by giving it a second home.

Look for alternatives to give your cast off furniture to someone that can use it!

Online

- Use a website like FreeCycle or Craigslist.
- FreeCycle, allows you to trade your items and "list" them to give them away.
- Craigslist, you can either trade or sell items. All items on these websites must be "free, legal and appropriate for all ages with an emphasis on being nice, keeping safe and building a sustainable local and world community."
